Overview

Mission 50 is a newly renovated and rebranded boutique office building and coworking space incorporating teams from one to 100-plus people.

While the property at 50 Harrison Street has a long history of serving businesses in the Greater New York City marketplace, its multi-million-dollar renovation, expansion, and reintroduction in the spring of 2021 responds to evolving workplace needs.

Mission 50's communal and collaborative work environment is characterized by bright, lively décor and a highly functional yet playful design. These spaces are paired with a wide range of amenities which cater to entrepreneurs of all stripes ranging from solo workers and growing startups, to seasoned businesses and traditional enterprises.
