York
Post Acute

For Immediate Release

Local Law Enforcement Honored at York Post Acute in Yorktown, Va.

Thank You Cards and Shared Stories Highlighted Celebration

YORKTOWN, Va. (Jan. 20, 2026) – In recognition of National Law Enforcement Appreciation Day, York Post Acute in Yorktown hosted a celebration for members of the York-Poquoson Sheriff's Office. The officers shared stories and enjoyed refreshments with York Post Acute residents and team members, and received hand-made thank you cards and gift bags.

"What a true pleasure for us to show our appreciation to the Sheriff's Office for the exceptional work they do every day for the York County community and for being such a supportive partner for our center," said York Post Acute's Carter Stulen, administrator. "Our staff and residents thoroughly enjoyed meeting the officers and having the opportunity to honor them."

Held annually in January, National Law Enforcement Appreciation Day recognizes the brave professionals who have dedicated their careers to protecting and serving communities.

Located at 113 Battle Road, York Post Acute (formerly York Nursing & Rehabilitation Center), provides post-hospital care, short-term rehab and long-term residential care. Specialty care programming is aimed at meeting area demand. More information on the Yorktown center can be found at yorkrehabhc.com.

PHOTO CAPTION (L-R): Sargeant Frank Scheib, Major Tommy West, York Post Acute Activities Director Tina Guthrie, Sargeant Kory Dodd, Sheriff Ron Montgomery, Deputy Nicole Williamson and York Post Acute Administrator Carter Stulen

###

About York Post Acute
113 Battle Road, Yorktown, Va. 23692

Follow York Post Acute on Facebook

Media Contact:
Sandy Crisafulli / David Wilderotter
Caryl Communications
201-796-7788
sandy@caryl.com / david@caryl.com