Lawrence Rehabilitation Hospital Welcomes Pulmonologist Amina Saqib to Clinical Team

New Leader for Established Specialty in Lawrence Twp., N.J.

LAWRENCE TWP., N.J. (April 15, 2026) — Lawrence Rehabilitation Hospital in Lawrence Twp. welcomes pulmonologist Amina Saqib, MD, as director of its established Pulmonary Care program. Part of the 40-acre Lawrence Healthcare Campus, the 116-bed skilled nursing center, located at 2381 Lawrenceville Road, provides acute and short-term subacute care.

Dr. Saqib is affiliated with RWJBarnabas Health, including its Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital and Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital Somerset. Board certified in critical care medicine, she practices at Pulmonary and Intensive Care Specialists of NJ in East Brunswick.

Lawrence Rehabilitation Hospital's Pulmonary Care services aim to reduce pulmonary symptoms, decrease disability, increase participation in physical and social activities, and promote independence and quality of life. The initiative caters to individuals with a range of diagnoses and conditions.

"Lawrence continues to partner with the best-of-the-best healthcare systems and clinicians for its specialty care initiatives," said Christina Albano, regional director of market development at Marquis Health Consulting Services, which supports Lawrence. "Lawrence Rehab Hospital is pleased to welcome Dr. Saqib, a respected pulmonologist, to its clinical leadership."

In addition to consults with Dr. Saqib, Lawrence pulmonary patients benefit from non-invasive ventilation support and 24/7 access to lab and radiology services. An extensive range of therapy services is available seven days per week.
