The Boulevard Post Acute in Fairfax Earns Consecutive-Year National Best Nursing Home Recognition

Center Recognized for Short-Term Rehab and Long-Term Care

FAIRFAX, Va. (April 7, 2026) – The Boulevard Post Acute in Fairfax has earned consecutive-year national recognition as a Best Nursing Home by U.S. News & World Report. The 81-bed skilled nursing center was rated in 2026 as high performing for both short-term rehabilitation and long-term care.

"When making key decisions on care, seniors and their families often look to the U.S. News annual list, relying on its thorough, data-driven analysis," said Megan Shilling, regional vice president of market development – Virginia, at Marquis Health Consulting Services, which supports the center. "The Boulevard is well deserving of this consecutive-year recognition. It is a true testament to the skill, dedication and compassion of the center's talented team."

U.S. News evaluated nearly 15,000 nursing homes nationwide for its Best Nursing Homes of 2026 ranking. To determine the ratings, it analyzed data about staffing and patient outcomes, as well as health and safety violations.

Located at 9229 Arlington Blvd. on The Virginian continuing care retirement campus, The Boulevard Post Acute provides post-hospital care, short-term rehab and long-term residential care. Its specialty programming aims to meet area healthcare demand.
