Tuckerman Rehab & Healthcare in North Bethesda Earns Consecutive-Year National Best Nursing Home Recognition

Skilled Nursing Center Rated High Performing for Short-Term Rehab

NORTH BETHESDA, Md. (Sept. 16, 2026) – Tuckerman Rehabilitation & Healthcare Center has earned a consecutive-year national recognition as a Best Nursing Home by U.S. News & World Report. The North Bethesda skilled nursing center was rated in 2026 as high performing for short-term rehabilitation.

“When making key decisions on care, seniors and their families often look to the U.S. News annual list, relying on its thorough, data-driven analysis,” said Jennifer Carnegie, regional director of market development at Marquis Health Consulting Services, which supports Tuckerman. “This back-to-back recognition for Tuckerman is well deserved. It is a true testament to the skill, dedication and compassion of the center’s talented team.”

U.S. News evaluated nearly 15,000 nursing homes nationwide for its Best Nursing Homes of 2026 ranking. To determine the ratings, it analyzed data about staffing and patient outcomes, as well as health and safety.

Located at 5550 Tuckerman Lane, Tuckerman Rehab & Healthcare provides post-hospital care, short-term rehab and long-term residential care. Specialty programming – including its OrthoWin orthopedic rehabilitation offering – is specifically catered to meet area healthcare demand. Tuckerman, which maintains a Five-Star rating from the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services, is part of a continuing care campus also including assisted living at The Terraces at Tuckerman Lane.
