Oxford Senior Living Campus in Langhorne Honors Eight Centenarian Residents for National Centenarian's Day

Pennsylvania State Dignitaries Participated in Celebration

LANGHORNE, Pa. (Oct. 15, 2026) – In conjunction with National Centenarian's Day – observed annually in late September – Oxford Enhanced Senior Living and Oxford Crossings in Langhorne honored a combined eight residents who have reached the age of 100 or older. Pennsylvania State Senator Frank Farry, Congressman Brian Fitzpatrick and State Representative Joe Hogan joined the Oxford independent living and personal care communities in celebrating the honorees, each of whom received a certificate of recognition.

The day's festivities included refreshments and a special presentation honoring all eight centenarians. The celebrated Oxford Enhanced Senior Living residents were:

- Paula Spigler, 102
- Vito Amoroso, 100
- Alberta Hess, 100
- Catherine Curran, 99 (turning 100 in December)

The celebrated Oxford Crossings residents were:

- Agnes (Hazel) Worsman, 102
- Laura DeChico, 101
- Donald Frey, 100
- Elizabeth Miller, 99 (turning 100 this month)

"Our centenarian residents have lived through a century or more of memories, milestones and experiences, and they continue to inspire us every day," said Ellen Michael, executive director at Oxford Enhanced Senior Living. "These eight individuals hold a special place in the hearts of our staff and fellow residents, and we were honored to celebrate them and the lives they have led. We are also grateful to Senator Farry, Congressman Fitzpatrick and State Rep. Hogan for taking the time to connect with our residents."

At the Oxford campus, residents enjoy a fulfilling lifestyle with beautifully appointed apartments, gourmet dining and an engaging mix of programming and activities. Residents also have access to the services they need, when they need them, including onsite skilled nursing care at Oxford Rehabilitation & Healthcare Center.
