Dr. Daniyal Siddiqi Joins The Terraces at Tuckerman Lane as Medical Director

Appointment Strengthens High-Quality, Patient-Centered Care

NORTH BETHESDA, Md. (Oct. 28, 2026) – The Terraces at Tuckerman Lane in North Bethesda has appointed Dr. Daniyal Siddiqi as medical director. Combining the personalized feel of a boutique community with advanced technology and a seamless continuum of care – including on-site skilled nursing and a high-acuity floor – The Terraces at Tuckerman Lane provides comprehensive support that evolves with residents' changing needs.

A highly respected Washington, D.C.-area physician, Dr. Siddiqi will facilitate convenient access to primary care for independent living residents, address complex medical needs among higher-acuity residents and oversee clinical care within the community's Journeys Memory Care neighborhood. His on-site presence will promote continuity of care and timely follow-up, allowing residents to receive care and manage everyday health concerns without leaving the community.

"Dr. Siddiqi is a great addition to the team at The Terraces at Tuckerman Lane," said Alan Eserner, vice president of operations for Marquis Health Consulting Services, which supports the community. "His presence strengthens coordination among our clinical staff and gives families added peace of mind, knowing medical expertise is readily available on campus. He will help build on the personalized experience that sets Tuckerman apart."

Regarded for his practice diversity, Dr. Siddiqi is a board-certified internist with a broad clinical background spanning hospital medicine, telehospital care, long-term acute care, post-acute/skilled nursing, and inpatient psychiatric medical management. As a current hospitalist at Inova Alexandria Hospital, he has extensive experience in caring for medically complex patients and navigating high-acuity clinical environments.

"What impresses me most about Tuckerman is its ability to care for residents throughout every stage of their healthcare journey," said Dr. Siddiqi. "This community is uniquely positioned to provide high-quality, coordinated care that allows residents to remain in a familiar environment while receiving the support they need." As medical director, Dr.

Siddiqi is working closely with Tuckerman's interdisciplinary care team, supporting its person-centered approach.

The Terraces at Tuckerman Lane's campus also includes Tuckerman Rehabilitation & Healthcare Center, which has earned a Five-Star Overall Rating from the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS). The community also offers a specialized private-pay program for residents with complex medical needs, providing individualized care in a supportive, dignified environment.

Residents of The Terraces at Tuckerman Lane enjoy a worry-free lifestyle featuring beautifully appointed apartments, gourmet dining and an engaging mix of programming and activities. Call (301) 897-8566 or visit tuckermanterraces.com for more information.
